

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the year 1969 marks the twenty-fourth anniversary of the signing of the United Nations Charter in San Francisco; and

WHEREAS, it is becoming more and more evident that there is no national way to achieve national security; and

WHEREAS, economic and social problems transcend national boundaries making it essential for constant communication and cooperation through an international agency; and

WHEREAS, the welfare of all men is benefited by universal efforts to eliminate illiteracy through the pooling of educational resources; and

WHEREAS, the achievements of scientists and technologists of all nations improve opportunities for all men to live more abundant lives when such advancements flow freely across international lines; and

WHEREAS, our nation has played an important part in establishing the United Nations organization twenty-four years ago and has been a faithful supporter in the present time despite difficulties, disappointments, and discouraging set-backs; and

WHEREAS, October 24 has been designated by the United Nations General Assembly as the date for observing its formation, reviewing its accomplishments, and rededicating ourselves to its goals and purposes;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, October 24, 1969, to be and urge all South Dakotans to seek a realistic understanding of the aims, problems, and achievements of the United Nations and its associated organizations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 30th day of September in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.

FRANK L. FARRAR, GOVERNOR
